

All The Unexpected

Founder Kimberly Reyes

About Us

Launched in December of 2020, ATU has grown from its roots as a podcast for families navigating the unexpected challenges of parenthood, to become a robust web destination for content ranging from healthy recipes to articles about current events. Both the podcast and website have reached audiences around the globe and continue to show steady growth.

@alltheunexpected

Listen On

www.alltheunexpected.com

About The Founder

Kimberly Reyes is a veteran educator, historian and trained political scientist. She has nearly 2 decades of experience in early childhood and primary education. Fluent in 4 languages, her parenting and educational philosophies pull from both Eastern and Western traditions. She is a mother of a toddler born at 26 weeks, speaking often on the NICU experience and other challenges facing parents whose journey has been anything but ordinary.

